VOLUME XXVI.

PARIS, KENTUCKY, FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 16, 1906.

NUMBER 14.

DEATHS.

—W. M. Ivy, aged 76 years, was found dead in bed Saturday night at his home near Russell Cave. He formerly lived on the Dr. Gregg farm near Hutchison, this county. Burial took place Monday at Old Union.

BIRTHS.

—A sweet and handsome little stranger arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. P. I. McCarthy yesterday to brighten the home of our genial and popular banker. The little visitor was given a cordial welcome by her two little sisters and three brothers. We congratulate this highly esteemed couple.

RELIGIOUS.

—Elder Carey E. Morgan will fill his pulpit Sunday morning and evening. His evening subject will be "How to Make Other People Miserable."

—Rev. Lon Robinson will fill his pulpit Sunday at the Methodist church. Morning subject, "The Garden of Gods." Night subject, "A Religion of Addition."

—Mr. George K. Pepper, aged 38, of Bourbon county, and Miss Nettie Bailey, aged 33, of Mason county, were married at the home of Mr. J. W. Bramel in Helena yesterday.

—Rev. F. W. Hinitt, D. D., president of Central University, will fill Dr. Rutherford's pulpit at the Second Presbyterian church Sunday. The public are cordially invited to attend. Dr. Hinitt is considered one of the finest pulpit orators in Kentucky.

MARRIAGES.

—Marriage license was issued Wednesday to Mr. Arthur Wilson, of Lexington, and Miss Daisy Wilson, of near Clintonville, this county.

—A marriage license was issued yesterday to James W. Chipley, of Fayette, and Miss Mary Cosby, of Harrison.

—Mr. L. H. DeBell and Miss Gertrude Lauckhart, both of Fayette, were united in marriage by Judge Denis Dundon in the County Clerk's office yesterday afternoon.

We found the following special in last night's Leader from Louisville in regard to the above couple:

"G. W. Lanckart, of Lexington, wired Chief of Police Gunther to arrest his daughter, Gertrude, aged fifteen, who eloped from Lexington with Samuel Debell, aged nineteen."

Both of the parties made affidavits, which are in the possession of Clerk Paton, that they were over twenty-one years of age.

THE TWO BOSS TRUSTS.

It is amusing to see the mighty sugar trust and the still mightier tobacco trust rallying at Washington to defeat the little Philippine tariff bill. This is a measure to allow all products from the Philippines to enter our ports free of duty with the exception of tobacco and sugar, which are to pay twenty-five per cent of the rates charged under our blessed Dingley tariff law. Our two trust octopi pretend to be terribly alarmed lest this favor to the Filipinos will completely ruin the sugar and tobacco monopolies which they control in this country. As a matter of fact the tobacco and sugar brought in from the Philippines would have no appreciable effect upon the markets for these commodities, and when our greedy trusts show alarm, it is as if a Bengal tiger should flee in terror at the approach of a four-weeks' old kitten. Incidentally, it should be remarked that hemp, which is the principal export of the Philippines, would come in free under the proposed law, and as it is the principal ingredient in making binder twine, American farmers would be benefitted to that extent. But aside from all personal and selfish considerations the new bill should pass as a simple act of justice to a poverty stricken people who are as harmless and helpless as children. Having assumed control of these islands, without consulting their population, and deprived them of certain markets which they previously enjoyed, it is certainly as little as we can do to allow them free access to our markets and a half chance to support themselves by such trade as this policy will procure for them.

LATE FRANKFORT NEWS.

The following new bills were offered in the Senate at Frankfort yesterday: A bill authorizing counties owning turnpikes to erect toll gate by vote of the people and collect tolls.

Act creating the county of Beckham out of parts of Breckinridge, Grayson, Ohio and Butler.

Act creating the office of official stenographer for Circuit Court districts and at salary of $1,000. The Spence bill, appropriating $2,000 to restore the Boone monument, passed unanimously.

The Linn bill, increasing the salary of the Governor's private secretary to $2,000, passed with only one vote against it.

The bill appropriating $35,000 to erect an agricultural building for A. and M. college, caused a long discussion. Senator Allen explained the need for the building. Senator Campbell thought all pupils, instead of four from each county, should have free tuition. Senator Spence complained that the bill had not been referred to the appropriation committee, and moved that it be so referred now. The motion was lost. The bill passed.

The committee on Kentucky statutes reported favorably on the anti-cigarette bill.

SENTENCE SERMONS.

The feet of men are not kept in the path of right by the light of brilliant thoughts alone.

The heretic hunter thinks that the cutting of many thistles will create at least a few roses.

Not he who has no weakness is the strong man, but he who makes them reserve his strength.

The best cure for the blues is to stop thinking of yourself and begin planning happiness for others.

How would the men who are going to heaven on their wives' religion look wearing their wives' wings?

A good many people find it easier to sing "I Am Thine, O Lord" when they have left their purses at home in another pocket.

It's not by being against many things that you save the world, but by being for a few things with all your fight.

STOCK AND CROP.

—Mann & Clark bought at Lexington one pair 4-year-old mules at $385; and some single mules from $130 to $165.

—George Wyatt, of near Paris, sold to Clarence Lebus, of Cynthiana, his crop of 14,000 pounds of tobacco at 10 1/2 cents.

—Mann & Clark sold to Harry B. Clay Tuesday a three-year-old mare mule at $190, also to same party a four-year-old walking horse at $150.

—T. F. Roche bought Tuesday a good delivery horse of Lawrence Vanhook for $85; also one G. K. Redmon for $90, and resold the last one to J. W. Larkin for $105.

—Silas E. Bedford sold Tuesday to J. H. Bell, of near Versailles, 136 acres on Stony Point and North Middletown pike, known as the Will Hedges farm, at about $115 per acre.

—Auctioneer M. F. Kenney sold on Wednesday for W. F. Heathman, Administrator of Mrs. Mary Lary, her farm of 80 acres, near Clintonville, to A. L. Stevenson, at $82.50 per acre.

—Brent Bros. bought of Thos. Berry 20 acres of hemp at $340 per 112 pounds; of Lefe Ardery 10 acres, yielding 1,250 pounds, for about an average of $60 per acre for the crop; of Shanklin & Son, 10 acres averaging 1,265 per acre.

—The James Bradley farm, seven miles from Lexington, on the Elkchester pike, comprising twenty-six acres, was sold Wednesday for $2,725 to C. C. Patrick, who owns the Highland Park stock farm, which adjoins his new purchase.

—C. B. Jarvis, a tenant, raised a crop of tobacco on 15 acres of B. T. Wright's land near Sta. psburg, which averaged 1,700 pounds to the acre. He has just sold his crop to the American Tobacco Company at $8.35 per acre, realizing nearly twice as much for the crop as the value of the land on which it was grown.

—Considering the sterling worth of Kaffer corn as a feed for horses, cat. e and poultry, it is a wonder that more of it is not raised in this section of the State.

In some counties in Western Kentucky large quantities have been raised with satisfactory results. It can be grown on poor land and will make a good yield even in the driest season. Farmers are pleased with results.

The farmers and breeders are having their innings just now. Mules are selling almost on a par with automobiles, and good horses are worth almost any price that the owner's conscience will allow him to take. These things being true there is sure to be much activity in breeding circles, and the owner of a good jack or stallion should take steps to bring the merits of the animal to the knowledge of the prospective breeders. The News is prepared to help him. Its advertising columns are read in almost every home in the county and in many of the surrounding counties. The office is also supplied with a fine line of type and everything in the line of cards, folders, etc., and at very moderate prices.

Huge Task.

It was a huge task to undertake the cure of such a bad case of kidney disease, as that of C. F. Collier, of Cherokee, Iowa, but Electric Bitters did it. He writes: "My kidneys were so far gone, I could not sit on a chair without a cushion; and suffered from dreadful backache, headache and depression. In Electric Bitters, however, I found a cure, and by them was restored to perfect health. I recommend this great tonic medicine to all with weak kidneys, liver or stomach." Dangers of Defective Plumbing!

Defective plumbing permits the entrance into the house of sewer gas bearing germs or contagious disease to which the human system readily succumbs. Sewer gas is not necessarily generated in the sewer, but is frequently created in the plumbing system within the home and enters the apartments through defective fixtures. If in doubt, consult us regarding the piping and repairing defective fixtures with "STANDARD" Porcelain Enameled Ware, acknowledged as the best sanitary equipment.

THE "COUNTY UNIT" BILL.

The bill before the Legislature that is attracting more interest than any other is the "County Unit" bill. More people have gone to Frankfort in the interest of this bill and against it than all the other bills combined. Delegates from each side have been there from nearly every town in Kentucky. Paris has had two delegations to visit the law makers, one for and one against the bill. The committee reported it without an expression of opinion. It is claimed by parties on the ground that it will pass the house and will be a tie in the Senate, and that Lieut. Governor Thorne will defeat the bill by voting "no" if called on to cast the deciding vote. We are not in favor of the bill and think it should not become a law. If Paris, for instance, does not want local option, we do not believe it just to give the outside precincts in the county the right to vote local option on us. If Paris wants it let her vote on the question, if Millersburg wants it let her vote on the question, and so on.

In our humble judgment local option does not control the whisky question as desired by the temperance people. It does not stop the sale or the drinking of whisky, and taking everything in consideration we believe that high license is the best method to control the whisky traffic. It has been tried and found to work well. A high license, requiring a bond for orderly houses, cuts out many dives where thieves and the tougher element are harbored, and at the same time it does not effect the revenue of the city and call for a higher rate of taxation.

BOURBON COUNTY AGRICULTURAL SOCIETY.

We haven't heard anything lately from the gentlemen who are raising funds to reorganize the Bourbon County Agricultural Society, but take it that they are meeting with the success they so richly deserve. You should not wait for these gentlemen Hon. C. M. Thomas and Mr. Jos. M. Hall, to call on you and solicit for the stock, you should look for them and voluntarily take stock in the enterprise. This is a thing that will advertise Paris and Bourbon County more than anything that could be done. Our stock and our farm products were at one time known from one end of this county to the other and with the wealth of our people old Bourbon should give a fair second to none in the State. If we believed it would be a losing investment we would certainly not urge the good people to take hold of it. If every other town in Kentucky the size of Paris can give a fair that is a financial success, besides the great reward reaped by the merchants and stockmen, why cannot Paris do the same thing? Now is the time to push the matter so we will have everything in readiness by the fall. Paris must have an old time fair this year and let everybody take a hand even if you only take one share of stock.

GOING AFTER PROGRESSIVE EUCHERE.

Several Maysville ministers used progressive euchre for their subjects Sunday and they gave people to understand that it was the grand jury's duty to indict "gamblers," that it didn't make any difference what kind of gambling they indulged in, nor what was their sex. The effect of their sermons have caused great excitement in that city as the grand jury is now in session and subpoenas have been issued for a number of Maysville's most prominent society ladies to appear before that body. The ministers who preached the sermons are aiding the grand jury in the investigation. This moral wave is getting serious and no telling what the end will be. If the progressive euchre players in this community should happen to be summoned before the grand jury the next term of court would have to be extended a week or two to get through the investigation. How can you blame the much abused men for taking out a small stack, when the dear ladies set the example. A word to the wise should be sufficient. Take the tip, dear friends, and lay off until after the March term of court.

THEY KNOW THEIR BOOK.

If there is a bunch of politicians on earth that "know their book," it is the crowd you find around the Fayette County Court House, and if reports are true they are fixing things up in great shape to land the nomination for Congressman in this district. After the announcement that South Trimble would not live up to the pledge made by him in the last Convention they have been busy at Lexington and it is arranged this way. Col. John R. Allen will be the candidate for Congress instead of Pres. Kimball, the Colonel being considered the strongest of the two. Kimball is to have the office now held by Col. Allen, and Mr. D. C. Hunter, now acting County Attorney of Fayette, will be given County Attorney Kimball's office.

This county has not yet put forward a candidate, but will no doubt have one and we expect to support him, for Bourbon is entitled to this office, but to be candid the name of John R. Allen sounds more like Congressional timber than any we have yet heard mentioned.

AIN'T IT THE TRUTH?

You see so much in the Republican organs about the frauds in the late Louisville election that it is really refreshing to read the following truth from our brother of the Greenup Democrat:

"Our esteemed contemporary prints about half a column this week showing 'the outrageous frauds committed by the Democrats at the last election in Louisville.' If said Democrats had stolen every ballot box in the city and burned them in the middle of the street and run every fusion voter in the Ohio river and kicked the Republicans over into the middle of Indiana to keep company with fugitive Taylor, it would not have been half so black as the late election frauds perpetrated by the Republicans of this county."

A LEADING TOPIC.

The subject of immigration is one of the leading topics of the press at this time and every Commercial Club in Kentucky is deeply interested in this matter, doing everything in their power to show to the people the advantages of their respective town and community. This is the way, for if Kentucky wants the best let her attract immigration from the Northwest. It is said there are symptoms of unrest in that quarter and it is no longer, "go West, young man," but "go South." Wonder if the Paris Business Men's Club is doing anything in this direction?

COME FROM UNDER COVER.

There are people who buy property and don't want the price stated in newspapers and even have their deeds recorded "for $1 and other considerations." This is simply done to keep assessors from getting at the true value of the property.

The law ought to require that every deed should show in plain figures the exact amount paid for the property, if this was done, there would be little use for spying Auditor's Agents. And yet these same people are the ones you hear continually crying about the high rate of taxation.

"NO WHISKY, NO FIT."

Word comes from Washington that no more negroes are to be appointed to Federal offices in the Southern States, and that those now in office will be replaced by white men. The reason for this is that the negro vote in that section is no longer available, and inasmuch as the Republican party can no longer profit by the negro in a political way he is to receive the cold shoulder when it comes to matters pertaining to the pie counter. This reminds us of the old circus clown who had a fit and was given whisky as a remedy, when informed the whisky was all gone he exclaimed, "No more whisky, no more fits."

A REASONABLE DOUBT.

Mr. Wallace, in his testimony before the Senate Committee on Inter-oceanic Canals this week shed some light on his opinion of the relative values of a commissioner at Panama and one who stays at home. He told the members of the committee that $30,000 was not too much to pay Mr. Stevens for the responsibility and the work. On the other hand he said that the commissioners who remained in Washington were well enough paid.

"Then Mr. Stevens would get as much as six of the Senators present," queried Senator Morgan.

"I presume so; and he earns it."

"We are getting all we are willing to take," replied the Senator.

"I doubt that," answered Mr. Wallace, a reply that caused a shout of laughter.

She was only five days from the same dread disease. They have many friends and relatives here to mourn their loss. Mrs. Eva Chandler is very low at the present writing. They have the sympathy of their many Kentucky friends.

A GOOD NIGHT'S REST

"Speak for it!" she cried to doggie. For she knew in her little heart, That German Syrup, home's great treasure, Could health and joy impart.

The greatest tonic on earth is a good night's rest. Restless nights and the terrible exhaustion of a hacking cough are dread dangers of the poor consumptive. But why this fear of the night when a few doses of Dr. Boschee's German Syrup will insure refreshing sleep, entirely free from cough or night sweat? Free expectation in the morning is made certain by taking German Syrup.

We know by the experience of over thirty-five years that one 75-cent bottle of German Syrup will speedily relieve or cure the worst coughs, colds, bronchial or lung troubles—and that, even in bad cases of consumption, one large bottle of German Syrup will work wonders. LILLARD SLATED TO GO.

Friends of Eph Lillard, warden of the Kentucky penitentiary, are much interested in the story that comes from Frankfort to the effect that Governor Beckham has slated him for retirement soon. The story is that Senator George, of Mayfield, is to get the place. The proposed retirement of Lillard, it is stated, is caused by the support Lillard gave Senator Blackburn in his fight against the Beckham faction. It is even claimed that Beckham will oust every Blackburn man in office. Eph Lillard is a figure in Kentucky politics.
He has been a staunch friend of Senator Blackburn for years, and despite the fact that he felt that he was jeopardizing his position when he stood by the Senator in his losing fight, he did not flinch, but did everything in his power to save Blackburn from defeat.

CHANGE IN R. F. D. ROUTE.

pike first, and finish on the Clintonville & Paris pike. He will leave Paris postoffice at 11:30 a. m.

"TOAD" AND HIS COLORED TROOPS.

George (Toad) Browner, the well-known amateur minstrel man, is rehearsing sixteen colored Parisians for a big minstrel performance at the Grand about March 1st. Mr. Browner says that his colored troops are composed of the best home talent and will give a first-class performance. They could have selected no better manager,
for "Toad" in fact ranks with professionals.

MIXED GRASS SEEDS.

A Washington special in Leader last night said:

"The Department of Agriculture in a bulletin issued today names C. S. Brent & Co., of Lexington, in the list of seed dealers who have been selling as orchard grass a mixture of meadow fescue, rye grass and orchard grass." Be sure and not confound the above firm with C. S. Brent & Bro., of our city, who also deal in seeds, for they have no connection whatever with each other.

WILD GOOSE CHASE.

Deputy Sheriffs A. S. Thompson and W. F. Talbott left town yesterday about 2:30 p. m., armed with four warrants, containing different charges, sent from Robinson county for Emery Poor. They located him in a hemp field near Centerville. He saw the officers approaching, and made for the tall timber. The efficient officers were hot on his trail, and followed him through the country into Scott county, until darkness overtook them, and they were compelled to give up the chase. They arrived back in town about 9 o'clock without their man, and looked as if they had been worked out for a bruising race.

FAIR PRICE.

One of the highest square foot prices ever realized in New York city for land has just been paid by the Century Realty company for a strip one-quarter of an inch wide and one hundred feet deep on the west side of Seventh avenue, about fifty feet south of Fifty-fourth street. The strip contains a trifle more than two square feet, and brought $1,000. It is at the rate of $1,200,000 for a full city lot.

FOUR MOTOR CARS.

According to a reliable authority the Louisville & Nashville railroad will shortly put into operation four sixty-foot gasoline motor cars between Paris and Lexington, two each way, making half-hour trips. According to the same authority the company will build a passenger station here near Third street, almost in the rear of the Windsor Hotel, recently purchased by Lexington capitalists.

HEAD-END COLLISION.

In a head-end collision between the Louisville & Nashville Express No. 8, north-bound, and local passenger No. 9, south bound, at Maurice Station, three miles south of Latonia, Ky., late Tuesday afternoon, two trainmen were killed, four trainmen injured and two passengers received slight injuries. Several trains passed through this city en route to Louisville on account of the wreck. They arrived at Louisville only six hours late after going almost twice the regular distance.

A BIG ORDER.

The Ancient Order of United Workmen has a membership in Kentucky of 5,000, and in the United States and Canada a membership of 425,000. Its chief objects are to furnish work for members, aid the sick and bury the dead. There is an insurance feature of $2,000 for the heirs of deceased members. The order was founded by J. J. Upchurch in 1868. It has paid out over $160,000,000 since its organization. The twenty-seventh biennial session of the Grand Lodge is now in session at Louisville, J. J. Veatch, of this city, being a representative from the local lodge.

THE A. O. U. W. BAZAAR.

The A. O. U. W. Bazaar at Odd Fellows' Hall on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, March 5, 6, 7, for the benefit of the Paris Hospital fund, should be made a financial success by every citizen of Paris and Bourbon county lending a helping hand. Garth Lodge proposes to turn over to the hospital fund $1,000, and they are leaving no stone unturned in their efforts to accomplish this result. The committee will start in a few days to solicit donations for the "Country Store," one of the features of the bazaar, and it is hoped they will not have to report a single refusal.

Dr. Anderson returned home Wednesday night, believing the operation to have been successful as his wife was doing nicely. On yesterday morning he was telephoned to come to Louisville at once as his wife was sinking fast. As we go to press a message from Louisville states Mrs. Anderson had just died. moaned the farmer, as he stood by the co-operate with the lodge and make this entertainment a pronounced success. The lodge appointed its com-

report next Tuesday night, when definite action will be taken.

—The junior cadets of the Millersburg Military Institute gave a Valentine reception Wednesday evening.
There are sixteen in the class, and the color scheme was violet and crimson,
which was carried out in everything.
There were about thirty present from Maysville, Flemingsburg, Carlisle, Paris, Georgetown, Lexington, and Nicholasville. The decorations were pretty, the illuminations brilliant, the menu tempting and the souvenirs were valentines. The Lexington Military Band dispensed delightful music, and all were loathe to depart.

—The dancing assembly gave an impromptu hop at Bourbon Hotel on Tuesday evening. About fifteen couples were present and several visitors.
There was just enough to insure everyone a good time. The management of the hotel were alert to the best interests of the guests, notwithstanding the short time in which it was gotten up.
A tempting lunch was served at midnight, consisting of chicken, devilled
ham, salmon croquets, beaten biscuits,
fruits, salads, pickles, olives, coffee, ices and cakes. Walters & Golden are congenial landlords and have a well appointed hotel. The lunch was prepared by Miss Josie Cronin. The entertainment was given in honor of the house party of Miss Ruth McClintock. The following are the guests from a dis-lisle.

FIGHT FOR POSTOFFICE.

The fight for the Mt. Sterling postoffice is now on in earnest, and four candidates are after the plum. They are John C. Wood, editor of the Gazette, James O'Connell, Mrs. Mollie Turner,
and Postmaster B. W. Hall, who is now filling his second term. All the candidates have some backing and the fight promises to be a warm one. In case of a deadlock there are several dark horses mentioned.

WE HOPE YOU WIN.

Mordecai Williams, in the Bath County World announcing that he is through with politics says:

"I am now only a candidate for heaven and don't want an earthly election. The best electioneering scheme for you, Brother Williams, is to join this reform movement that is sweeping over the country, or to 'make your calling and election sure' you might unite with the Presbyterian church.

BUNCOED AGAIN.

The manager of the New York theatre tells the following story: During a performance of "Rip Van Winkle" by the late Joseph Jefferson, the manager, who was standing in the lobby, observed a countryman hovering about the entrance in an uncertain way. Finally as with a determination to go the limit, the countryman bought a ticket and entered the house. A little while after the manager happened to be in the lobby again, when the countryman came out with an expression of disgust upon his face.

"Well how do you like the show?" the manager inquired, with secret amusement. The irate farmer grew confidential.

"Say, mister," he replied, "I'm goin' few have a mighty hard time splainin' tew Mirandy what I done with them tew dollars, but you kin bet I won't tell her I paid it ter see an old feller fill up on lickin' an' go ter sleep, when I could a-gone up ter ther tavern at ther Corners an' seen old Bill Hardtree dew it fer nothin'!"—Success Magazine.

Prof. Lippard has had a large experience in training young men and women for good positions and placing them in same, and every young person possible should enter at the opening. Nothing pays better than a business education. Positions secured for all graduates, and Prof. Lippard has calls for more graduates than he can furnish.

MONSTER BATTLESHIP.

The monster battleship Dreadnaught, which, when finished, will have cost Great Britain $7,500,000, was launched at the Portsmouth Navy Yard on Saturday by King Edward. The ceremony was the most simple possible, the king having vetoed all decorations and pageantry on account of the death of his father-in-law King Christian. There was a moment of suspense after the king touched the electric button removing the last block, as the huge ship hesitated and appeared reluctant to take the water. But ultimately she glided down the ways in safety. Among the occupants of the royal stand were the American naval attaché, Lieutenant Commander John H. Gibbons, and other attaches, the admiralty officials and a few privileged persons.

ALICE'S WEDDING GOWN.

Miss Alice Roosevelt's wedding gown is said to be a marvel of embroidery, but otherwise it is severe. The material is heavy cream satin closely woven with thread of silver, with a yoke and high collar of old rose point lace. A six-inch-wide ruffle of the same lace will edge the elbow sleeves, the customary full length sleeves giving way in this instance to the elbow-length, in view of the insistent instructions from the originators of fashions in Paris that elbow length sleeves shall dominate in everything, not exempting wedding gowns. A flounce of old point lace will be the only decoration of the full skirt. The train of square design, lined with cream taffeta silk, will complete the wedding costume. This is the most official description by the modists. Incidentally Miss Roosevelt will wear the wedding veil that her mother was married in. And alas, there will be no official list of wedding presents! It will probably always remain unknown whether or not the gifts of a sympathetic world will reach the total of $100,000, as has been reported, but it is now considered likely that history will repeat itself and this amount will dwindle down something after the manner of the total of the gifts brought back from the Philippines, which from several hundred thousand came down to two thousand dollars.

FUTURE LIFE FOR ANIMALS.

There are some wise and respected persons who believe in immortality and a future life for animals. The instance below, we think, is the only one where it is set forth on a tombstone. In the center of a field at Haverhill, Suffolk, England, is a large flat stone covering the grave of a mare which died in 1852, inscribed as follows: "Polka. She never made a false step. Ecclesiastes iii., 19th verse." A reference to chapter and verse shows the following: "For that which befalleth the sons of men befalleth beasts, even one thing befalleth them; as the one dieth, so dieth the other."

A Wonderful Record.

As made up by improved and exact processes Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is a most efficient remedy for regulating all the womanly functions, correcting displacements, as prolapsus, anteversion and retroversion, overcoming painful periods, toning up the nerves and bringing about a perfect state of health. It cures the backache, periodical headaches, the dragging-down distress in the pelvic region, the pain and tenderness over lower abdominal region, dries up the pelvic catarrhal drain, so disagreeable and weakening, and overcomes every form of weakness incident to the organs distinctly feminine.

"Favorite Prescription" is the only medicine for women, the makers of which are not afraid to print their formula on the bottle wrapper, thus taking their patrons into their full confidence. It is the only medicine for women, every ingredient of which has the strongest possible endorsement of the most eminent medical practitioners and writers of our day, recommending it for the diseases for which "Favorite Prescription" is used. It is the only put-up medicine for women, sold through druggists, which does not contain a large percentage of alcohol, so harmful in the long run, especially to delicate women. It has more genuine cures to its credit than all other medicines for women combined, having saved thousands of sufferers from the operating table and the surgeon's knife. It has restored delicate, weak women to strong and vigorous health and vitality, making motherhood possible, where there was barrenness before, thereby brightening and making happy many thousands of homes by the advent of little ones to strengthen the marital bonds and add sunshine where gloom and despondency had reigned before.

Write to Dr. R. V. Pierce. He will send you good, fatherly, professional advice, in a plain, sealed envelope, absolutely free. Address him at Buffalo, N. Y.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets do not gripe. They effectually cleanse the system of accumulated impurities.

The People's Common Sense Medical Adviser, by Dr. Pierce, 1008 pages, is sent free on receipt of stamps to pay expense of mailing only. Send 21 one-cent stamps for the book in paper covers, or 31 stamps for the cloth-bound volume. Address as above.

NICE OUTING FOR SOLDIERS.

President Roosevelt and Secretary of War Taft will bring all possible pressure to bear on Congress to have it appropriate $1,000,000 so that the regular army may live under canvas for two months this year. They are willing to go on record as asking for $1,209,800 so that the National Guardsmen of the several states may be included in the outing, which will not be anything in the nature of a summer vacation, however. The army will undergo all the hardships it would meet with in times of actual war, except the privations caused by an enemy. The President would have the infantry marched three hundred miles to camp, and the same distance on their way back. The cavalry would be compelled to ride 300 miles there and the same distance on the return. The benefits derived by the militia through its two-month's association with the regulars would be great.

OF COURSE HE DID.

THE FAIR

THE HOUSEWIFE'S

Happy Hunting Ground

Is there a store in Paris more interesting to housewives, or so much visited by them as THE FAIR.

THE FAIR is this city's main storehouse of everything under the sun that enters into the line of household needs. Not only does the wise housewife come here for everything she wants in China, in Glassware and in Tinware, Earthenware and Kitchenware in general; but there are a thousand and one other wants that send her at once to THE FAIR as the most likely place at which to procure them. If she wants Wall Paper, or Window Shades, or Matting, or Oil Cloth, or Crepe Paper, or Stationery, or Toilet Soap, or a Mirror, or a Framed Picture, or a Bird Cage, or an Alarm Clock, or anything in Table Cutlery, she finds it here and pays a little less, in most cases, than she would have done elsewhere.

We might indefinitely extend the above list, but it sufficiently serves to show the highly varied character of THE FAIR'S stock. No wonder this store has been dubbed the Housewife's Happy Hunting Ground.

MUCH MONEY MAKES US MAD.

Why are millionaires so often miserable men? Is there something in vast wealth that necessarily produces unhappiness? Is there also something in it that leads to immorality, recklessness and all forms of licentious dissipation? These questions are suggested by the recent death of Charles T. Yerkes, the famous traction magnate of Chicago, New York and London. He left a fortune of $20,000,000 and was buried in a tomb costing $50,- 000, but from all accounts he was a more miserable man than the veriest pauper that tramps the earth. Though owning a magnificent mansion in New York filled with treasures of art beyond compare, he occupied rooms in a hotel, while his wife, to whom he had not spoken for several months, lived alone with her servants in her palatial residence. With all his wealth he was unable to enjoy those simple home ties, without which no human being can be really happy. His money was obtained by dishonest methods, his character was stained by numerous immoralities which embittered the closing years of his life with the untold agonies of remorse.

Another millionaire, who points a moral if he does not adorn a tale, is Wm. E. Corey, president of the billion dollar steel trust. Not content with his vast fortune and his enormous salary, he abandoned his wife to run off
after a cheap actress, with a resultant scandal that covered his name with disgrace. He had everything that wealth could procure, but evidently lacked something without which all the wealth of the world is worthless. Whether it was his money that caused him to go astray or only innate depravity, we are unable to state. Many men, who are not wealthy, are addicted to various forms of immorality, but owing to lack of prominence the world does not hear of them, but it is impossible to escape moralizing on the numerous cases of millionaires gone wrong. One cause of the trouble seems to be that these men, after becoming rich, weary of the wives who shared their burdens and sorrows during the years of struggle.
Having grown rich they become ashamed of the plain mothers of their children, and desire to exchange them for society high-flyers. This was the rock upon which Yerkes wrecked his destiny; this was the cause of Corey's downfall and many other instances of the same kind might be mentioned in connection with the millionaire class.
But they are not all bad. Andrew Carnegie is a model father and husband as well as a millionaire, and it is greatly to his credit that he has never become ashamed of the plain Scotch woman who began with him in youth, and has shared all of his wonderful fortune. Farmers seldom become millionaires, and perhaps it is better that this is so. As a class they are perhaps the most contented in the world, and this is largely due to the fact that ordinarily they escape the two dangerous extremes, of poverty on the one side and great wealth on the other. Not only is great wealth not essential to happiness, but, as we have shown, it is often a curse. The man to be envied is he who owns a good farm, well equipped and capable of producing everything needed for the family besides a reasonable surplus to be expended in luxuries and innocent amusements. There are millions of men of this kind, and we hope that all of them are too sensible to envy the condition of the unhappy rich man, examples of whom we have mentioned in the foregoing part of this article.

AFTER THE MONEY.

Recommendations that legal proceedings be instituted to recover campaign contributions made by the New York Life Insurance company were submitted Wednesday to the trustees of that company by the special investigating committee, headed by Thomas P. Fowler.

It is recommended that the money be recovered from such officers and trustees as counsel shall decide are liable therefor.

The campaign contributions referred to were made for Republican campaign purposes and aggregated $148,702, divided as follows:

$50,000 in 1896, $50,000 in 1900, and $18,702 in 1904. No other campaign contribution, the committee declared,
had been disclosed by the investigation.

The report in conclusion says: "The committee is advised that the funds of the company could not be legally used for the part to which these funds were applied or for any political purposes at any time or under any circumstances.
The use of the funds in aid of any political party, however, necessary to the maintenance of the values of its policies may be deemed to be, is foreign to the trust with which such funds are impressed."
